

CYBERPROOFED? ASSESSMENT QUESTIONNAIRE

- 1) There is no recommended location for your Internet access computer in the home.
A. True B. False

- 2) Sexual predators frequently meet youth on the Internet by pretending to be of similar age and gender to the potential victim.
A. True B. False

- 3) If you come across a site which has inappropriate content, you should send them an e-mail saying that you don't approve of their site.
A. True B. False

- 4) All Internet users are responsible for the content of the messages they send.
(This includes hate statements, pranks or prejudice)
A. True B. False

- 5) Visiting websites often results in the user having cookies saved on their computer system.
A. True B. False

- 6) Entering contests, filling out questionnaires or submitting forms on the Internet may be a threat to you and your family's safety and security.
A. True B. False

- 7) Virus Protection software is 100 percent effective in detecting a virus attached to an e-mail including those with JPEG, GIF and BMP (Bit map) attachments.
A. True B. False

- 8) Through your computer, commercial companies can track your Internet purchases and the sites you visit.
A. True B. False

- 9) Making copies of purchased software and/or CD's for others is illegal.
- A. True B. False
- 10) Every website on the Internet is registered and screened for content and accuracy.
- A. True B. False
- 11) Software is available to protect private information like your address and telephone number from being transmitted when you visit a website.
- A. True B. False
- 12) All instant messenger conversations and e-mails are private and cannot be viewed by others.
- A. True B. False
- 13) A virus on your computer can allow a hacker to copy, delete or modify information on your computer.
- A. True B. False
- 14) Predators may offer bogus jobs over the Internet to lure victims.
- A. True B. False
- 15) Always bring a friend when you go to meet someone in person, who you have initially met on the Internet.
- A. True B. False
- 16) Most computer viruses are revealed within 12 hours.
- A. True B. False
- 17) Flaming and spamming are activities that can be done through e-mail.
- A. True B. False
- 18) If you disclose your telephone number on the Internet, it may be traced to reveal your home address.
- A. True B. False

19) Internet addiction can have serious consequences.

A. True B. False

20) Deleting information from your computer before you sell it, will ensure the information cannot be recovered by the purchaser.

A. True B. False

21) I have a computer with Internet access at home.

A. True B. False

22) I have used an online instant messenger in the last month.

A. True B. False

23) I or a member of my family have purchased an item on-line.

A. True B. False

24) I have met, in person, someone I initially met on the Internet.

A. True B. False

25) There is a computer with Internet access in one of the bedrooms in our home.

A. True B. False